

Digital Community Guidelines

We encourage you to interact with your fellow No Barriers Community, but ask that you be courteous and respectful of one another even if you disagree with a comment or post. Also know, even though fellow community members post content, you should not rely on these posts as accurate information. Only posts from the page itself reflect the opinion of No Barriers.

Removal of Posts

No Barriers will not edit any comment or post, but our team reserves the right to remove any that fall into the below categories:

- Obscene, threatening or harassing language.
- Verbal attacks or threats on individuals, including participants or No Barriers personnel.
- Comments that degrade, defame or attack our population or participants.
- Comments that pose a threat to safety of No Barriers participants, personnel or property.
- Comments that do not relate to the topic for No Barriers' social media page or post. This includes unauthorized advertising, spam or hyperlinks.

Please know, in certain cases, No Barriers may suspend, terminate or ban certain users from our social media channels for repeatedly violating the above guidelines. If there are questions or concerns about our Digital Community Guidelines please contact No Barriers at (970) 484-3633.
